

Cub Scout Academics: Language and Culture

REQUIREMENTS

Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouts, and Webelos Scouts may complete requirements in a family, den, pack, school, or community environment. Tiger Cubs must work with their parents or adult partners. Parents and partners do not earn loops or pins.

Belt Loop

Complete these three requirements:

- _____ 1. Talk with someone who grew up in a different country than you did. Find out what it was like and how it is different from your experience.
- _____ 2. Learn 10 words that are in a different language than your own.
- _____ 3. Play two games that originated in another country or culture.

Academics Pin

Earn the Language and Culture belt loop, and complete seven of the following requirements:

- _____ 1. Earn the BSA Interpreter Strip.
- _____ 2. Write the numbers 1–10 in Chinese or another number system other than the one we normally use (we use the Arabic system).
- _____ 3. Visit an embassy, consulate, or charge de'af-fairs for another country.
- _____ 4. Make a display of stamps or postcards of another country. Explain the importance or symbolism of the things depicted to that country's culture.

- _____ 5. Learn 30 words in a language other than your own.
- _____ 6. Learn a song in another country's language.
- _____ 7. Say five words in American Sign Language. One of these words could be your first name.
- _____ 8. Visit a restaurant that specializes in recipes from another country.
- _____ 9. Watch a TV show or movie in a foreign language. Tell how easy or difficult it was to understand what was happening.
- _____ 10. Interview an interpreter. Find out what his or her job is like.
- _____ 11. Make a list of 30 things around your home that were made in another country.
- _____ 12. Read a book or story about an immigrant to the United States.

If the Scout's native language is not English, then English may be used to satisfy the appropriate requirements.

Resources

Local cultural societies can be an excellent resource for information and contacts about their culture and language. Libraries and museums are also excellent sources of information, along with the Internet. These organizations are advocates of early-age language programs:
